

Objectives of the study:

- 1.To collect the achievement in English of the students (Third Language) at the S.S.C. Examination.
2. To find out achievement in English (unilevel) of the these students at the H.S.C. Examination.
3. To compare achievement in English at the S.S.C. and the H.S.C.Examination
4. To locate and identify the errors made by students.
5. To prepare Remedial Material based on errors of students.
- 6.To study the effectiveness of the developed implement Remedial Material by implementing on selected group of students.

Assumptions of the study:

1. The students of Marathi Medium get less marks in English at the H.S.C Examination.
- 2.The Students of English medium get good marks in English at the H.S.C Examination.

Since its establishment at the turn of the century, a central preoccupation of the International Criminal Court (ICC) has been to catalyse the pursuit of criminal accountability at the domestic level. Drawing on ten years of research, this book theorizes the ICC's principle of complementarity as a transnational site and adaptive strategy for realizing an array of ambitious governance goals.Â The story is told through a specific case study of genetically engineered seeds purportedly made to be 'climate-ready'.