

On Care for Our Common Home: Laudato Si

By Pope Francis, Catholic Church

Word Among Us Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Addressed not only to Catholics but to every person living on this planet, Pope Francis second encyclical is a challenging call for a bold cultural revolution in how we think about technological progress and economic growth. The degradation of our environment, he says, is a symptom of deeper problems: rapid change, unsustainable overconsumption, indifference to the poor, and the decay of social values. He offers a variety of solutions, including a change in lifestyles away from extreme consumerism and towards a greater sense of social responsibility. For Christians, an ecological spirituality one that is grounded in the convictions of our faith is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience. Drawing on the rich social teachings of the Church, Laudato Si is a groundbreaking document that will be discussed and studied by both believers and non-believers for years to come. Study Guide Included for Reflection and Discussion.

Caritas & Laudato Si'. On care for our common home. Celebrating the fifth anniversary of Laudato Si'™ A renewed commitment to hear the cry of the poor and the cry of the earth. In his encyclical letter, Pope Francis calls the Church, decision-makers and all people of goodwill to acknowledge the urgency of our environmental challenge. The poorer areas of the world are particularly vulnerable to environmental degradation and their populations bear the brunt of its effects. We believe everyone can make a difference and achieve real transformation – one that really heeds the cries of the earth and of the poorest – if we work together as one to care for our common home. Each of us has a deep well of creativity and imagination that simply needs to be freed to respond, together with others.
