By Chetan Bhagat

Rupa Publications India Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Krish Malhotra meets Ananya Swaminathan at IIM Ahmedabad where they are both pursuing an M.B.A. Ananya's charm and good looks bring her to the fore of the popularity chart at the Institute and although Krish finds her very appealing, this reputation makes him wary of her. Ananya enlists Krish's help who is an IIT graduate and the duo began their friendship. Soon this friendship blossoms into love and the pair become inseparable. The real story begins in their last year at the Institute when having moved past all of the other persons' idiosyncrasies, the two are resolved to tie their love through the bond of marriage. However, they aren't the only ones involved in this decision and although they are in love, there is the question of their families. With the parents not accepting their love, Ananya is sent off to meet Tamil Brahmin boys while Krish is sent off to meet respectable Punjabi girls. However, Krish cannot forget Ananya and is the same with her and he embarks on a quest to win over her family to finally marry her. Through a number of amusing and unfortunate clashes, the...

The dynamics of the two cultures in the same country resonates with real depth. The writing is seamless; the introduction of the different cultural practices is absorbed through the story rather than becoming a lecture. The ideas, the conflict is as pertinent to India as it is to the US or dozens of other nations today. Finally, whether you approve or disapprove of what is happening in the tale, it feels real; this is a real couple with problems you can relate to. I didn't know much about India and even less about their marriage customs but this has taught me loads. I was very impressed and surprised by the amount of pedigree in Indian culture. Read more. They are from two different states of India, deeply in love and want to get married. Of course, their parents don't agree. To convert their love story into a love marriage, the couple have a tough battle in front of them. For it is easy to fight and rebel, but it is much harder to convince. Will they make it? Well I was very excited to read it cos my marriage has the same elements if not the story - I am a Punjabi girl married to a Tamil Brahmin Boy, we also faced oppositions, threats, long distances, break ups, emotional blackmails and cultural gaps, etc. So when my husband read it he vouched that I should read it and I would find similarity between them & us.
