Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1963-64

Disgrifiad / Description

Eleven diaries, 1873-1902, of Moses Davies of Llanfyllin, auctioneer and valuer, and of members of his family; five notebooks containing notes [by ?Morgan Davies] of lectures on physiology by Dr. Stirling of Edinburgh University; and parts of the application by C.B.S. (Television) Limited (Cambrian Broadcasting Services) to become a programme contractor in 1956.

Over seventy titles selected from the library of the late The Right Hon. E. Clement Davies, M.P.

Among the items of Welsh interest, the majority of which are established literary classics, the following is noteworthy because of its comparative rarity: The drama in modern Wales . . . from 1900 to the present day: a thesis in English literature presented to the Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania by Olive E. Hart (Philadelphia: Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1928).

Most of the other items worthy of note relate, not unnaturally, to various aspects of Parliamentary government, such as The World we live in . . . the record of the international assembly of women held at South Kortright, New York . . . 1946, by Mildred Adams (Hartford, 1947); Memorandum of the Austrian Federal Government concerning the South Tyrol question (Vienna, n.d.); Report of the proceedings of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference held at Canberra, November 1959; Two years of German oppression in Czechoslovakia (Czechoslovak Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1941); White Book of the Katanga Government about the outlaw activities in some Baluba areas (Elizabethville, n.d.); and Tibet and the Chinese People's Republic; a report to the International Commission of jurists (Geneva, 1960).

Five letters, 1856-74, from Rowland (and Grace) Thomas, Caergybi, to his nephew [Owen Thomas].

Seventy-one letters (two incomplete), 1846-63, chiefly from Rev William Roberts, Amlwch, to his daughter Elinor (Elin or Ellen) and Rev Owen Thomas, who became her husband in 1860. There are also four letters from S. Roberts, the wife of William Roberts, and one from Wm. Roberts, their son.

Twenty-five letters, 1846-66 and undated, from Rev Henry Rees to Rev William Roberts, Amlwch, Rev Owen Thomas and others. Some have been printed in Owen Thomas, Cofiant y Parchedig Henry Rees (Wrexham, 1891).

Two bound volumes of letters from Dr. Lewis Edwards to Dr. Owen Thomas, 1849-61 and 1862-83. The volumes bear the name of Josiah Thomas, Liverpool.

Nine letters, 1857-67, from Rev David Jones, Caernarfon and Treborth, to Dr. Owen Thomas relating mainly to Cofiant y Parchedig John Jones, Talsarn. David Jones was the youngest brother of John Jones, Talysarn.

Ten letters, c. 1871-91 (year not given), from Mrs. Annie Davies, Treborth, daughter of Henry Rees, to Dr. Owen Thomas, and thirteen letters, 1869-90, from Richard Davies, Treborth, to Dr. Thomas relating mainly to Cofiant y Parchedig Henry Rees.

Miscellaneous items, including material relating to Rev John Jones, Talysarn, by his son, Thos. Jones, and observations on Rev Henry Rees as a preacher by, and in the autograph of, Rev William Rees (see Owen Thomas, Cofiant y Parchedig Henry Rees, II, 1070). Two pages of the William Rees manuscript are wanting.

Addresses, etc., by, and in the autograph of, Dr. Owen Thomas, one in English on the Apostolic Succession and two in Welsh (see J. J. Roberts 'Iolo Carnarvon', Cofiant y Parchedig Owen Thomas, D.D., Liverpool, pp.320 and 382). The address delivered to mark the Centenary of the Calvinistic Methodist Cause in Liverpool, 1882, is fuller here than in the Cofiant.

A few miscellaneous items, including an attested copy, 1853, of the record of the baptism of [Dr.] Owen Thomas, 17 January 1813, at Hyfrydle Chapel, Holyhead, the licence to preach granted to Owen Thomas, 10 November 1838, and papers relating to his studies at Edinburgh University (see Cofiant y Parchedig Owen Thomas, D.D., Liverpool, p. 97).

An extensive group of letters to Dr. Owen Thomas from a large number of correspondents, including many prominent Welshmen of the period, between the years 1842 and 1891. Several of the letters written in 1867 are letters of sympathy on the death of Mrs. Owen Thomas, and several of those written in 1891 are expressions of sympathy with Dr. Owen Thomas in his illness. There are also a few letters and resolutions of sympathy addressed to members of the family after his death, 1891.

Typescript copies of 'Cerdd Rolant, Wedi ei throi i'r Gymraeg gan T. Hudson-Williams' and 'Bannau Llen Pwyl gan T. Hudson-Williams', with an autobiographical and bibliographical note by the late Professor T. Hudson-Williams. (Bannau Llên Pwyl was published by Gwasg Aberystwyth in 1953); and two letters, 1954, from T. Hudson-Williams, Oxford, to the donor, and a holograph copy of 'Boris Godwnoff gan Pwshcin, 1825- trosiad Cymraeg T. H[udson]-W[illiams]'.

Twenty-six letters, 1948-63, from David Jones, C.B.E., D.Litt., Northwick Lodge, Harrowon-the-Hill, to the donor. (To be sealed) (NLW MS 22724E)

Disgrifiad / Description

Mr Llewellyn-Taylor has for many years earned the Library's gratitude for the consistently high quality of his gifts, particularly in the field of early printed books (Dept of Printed Books).

This year is no exception, as will be readily appreciated from the fact that over 200 volumes were received, including twenty-five works from the sixteenth century, of which eleven were printed before 1550. These comprise an imperfect copy of Qoukdidou Euggraph by Thucydides (Venice, 1502); Cosmographia . . . by Pope Pius II (Paris, 1509); Horatii Flacci lyrici poetae opera . . . (Venice, 1505?); works by Petrus de Rosenheim (Leipsig, 1505), Boethius (Florence, 1513), Origen (Paris, c. 1520), St. Augustine (1521), Ovid (Venice, 1533), and Petrarch (Venice, 1550), and the Descriptio Britanniae . . . of Paolo Giovio (Venice, 1548). Among the remainder are a number of Greek and Latin liturgical works published between 1526 and 1595, and two books by Sir J. Skene: The lawes and actes of Parliament . . . (Edinburgh, 1597), and De verborum significatione . . . 2nd edition (Edinburgh, 1599). Among items from the seventeenth century may be mentioned The dialogue in English betweene a doctor of divinitie and a student in the laws of England . . . (London, 1607); Sir A. Fitzherbert's L'Office et auctoritie de iustices de peace . . . (London, 1617); Seldon's The historie of tithes . . . (1618); and An abridgement of the Lord Cokes commentary on Littleton . . . (London, 1651). Other publications of a later date include twenty-eight of the series of volumes issued by The Badminton Library of Sports and Pastimes and an extensive, if imperfect, run of The Illustrated London News, 1842-1902.

The large number of modern books received contain biographies, histories, and the publications of societies aimed at the protection of animals and the conservation of wild life (Dept of Printed Books). A holograph letter from E. B. Hancock, Seaton, to the donor's mother, 1873 (NLW MS 16343E); two letters, in French, from Capitaine Gaillard from Brest and Vichy, probably to the donor's brother Captain G. R. Taylour; a collection of foreign and British postage stamps, match-box labels, and photographs, including some of South African interest, c. 1900; and two royal proclamations, issued in 1660 concerning relations between England and Portugal and the fighting of duels.

A volume of documents and photographs relating to the inauguration of the statue to the memory of Robert Clive, Baron Clive (1725-74), in Shrewsbury on 18 January 1860 (Dept of Pictures and Maps); a lease for a year of parcels of land in the Island of St. Vincent including Monktons Lands and negro slaves (named in a schedule attached), 1 Nov. 1796; bargain and sale of a plantation in Charlotte parish in the Island of Saint Vincent called the Peruvian Estate and the plantation there called the Henrys Vale Estate and all the negro and other slaves belonging to the said plantations (listed in an attached schedule), 1 June 1832; papers relating to slavery, including lists of male and female slaves belonging to Nathaniel Winter & Co. of London, 31 May 1817, a letter concerning the scale of compensation money payable for the slaves of the late Mr. Waugh in Jamaica, 13 Aug. 1835, and a letter from Sir Sidney Smith, President of 'la Societe Antipiratique des Chevaliers liberateurs des esclaves blancs et noirs en Afrique', to Monsieur Jaque Lafitte, representative of the Society's bankers, requesting copies of the Society's accounts, 7 Oct. 1839; accounts of the sale of coffee from Berbice [British Guiana], May 9-Oct. 17, 1833, addressed to Messrs. Forbes and Hall, Ely Place, Holborn, [London]; a diploma of a doctorate of the University of Padua, 1586, granted to 'Dominus' Melchior a Porta, citizen of Venice, and written by James Melclavellus of Padua; and an account book of receipts and disbursements, written in Italian, 1613-15.

Adroddiad Blynnyddol / Annual Report 1963-64

Disgrifiad / Description

A supplementary collection of over 200 books and pamphlets from the library of the donor's husband, the late Rev J. Seymour Rees, Seven Sisters, most of these being typescript volumes (NLW MSS 18628-707). The collection consists of some original work by J. Seymour Rees and his father, John Rees, such as poetry, short stories, essays, biographies, and guide books, much of which was submitted for competition at various national and local eisteddfodau, and volumes of collected material on various topics, including essays, articles and other material on such eminent Welshmen as W. Llewelyn Williams, Daniel Silvan Evans, Sir John Morris Jones, and Rev William Edwards, Groeswen, and on Welsh hymnology, and collections of poetry by D. Emrys James ('Dewi Emrys'), I.

D. Hooson, R. Williams Parry, and T. J. Thomas ('Sarnicol'), of prose by 'Sarnicol', W. Llewelyn Williams, O. M. Edwards, and W. J. Gruffydd, and of hymns by H. Elvet Lewis ('Elfed'), J. D. Vernon Lewis, J. R. Davies, Pentyrch, and others, and selections of prose and verse compiled for competition at various national eisteddfodau. In addition to the collection of Elfed's Welsh and English hymns, there are twelve volumes containing some of his prose and verse and material on his life and work. There are also indexes to Y Beirniad, Y Geninen, and Y Geiriadur Bywgraphyddol; typescript copies and cuttings, from periodicals and newspapers, of articles and essays by various persons, and by 'Sarnicol' and J. Seymour Rees in particular; typescript transcripts of several printed books, in particular of collections of hymns published in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries; and scrapbooks of newspaper cuttings relating to D. Lloyd George, Dylan Thomas, 'Dewi Emrys', W. Llewelyn Williams, Sir John Morris Jones, 'Elfed', Rev John Evans, Brecon, Rev Jubilee Young, and others. The collection also contains letters to J. Seymour Rees and Mrs. Seymour Rees and a small group of other correspondence.

The largest donation of printed books received during the current year was that which the Library was invited to select from the very extensive library of Rev J. Seymour Rees (Dept of Printed Books). It numbered several hundreds of volumes primarily of literary, historical, and theological interest, all in very good condition, and many having been bound by Mr. Rees himself.

A keen eisteddfodwr, he was well known for his frequent successes at the National Eisteddfod, and his private library contained much of the source material for his literary contributions to Welsh periodical literature.

Rev Seymour Rees was obviously a keen book collector and consequently he acquired many titles which are now rare and which the National Library was very pleased to add to its collections (Dept of Printed Books). These include: Rules and regulations of the Aberystwyth Mutual Ship Insurance Society . . . 1854; Cultural changes in Cwmtaf, 1840-1957, by Gillian M. Bale; The story of Fish Street Church, Hull by C. E. Darwent, 1899; Telyn Aur Glan Taf sef gweithiau prydyddol William Davies ('Grawerth'), Merthyr, 1851; Caniadau Bethel by Evan Edwards of Mold, n.d.; Bywyd hynod Dr. John Faustus ser-ddewin a swynwr; Hanes am urddiad Thomas Bevan a David Jones yn Neuaddlwyd, sir Aberteifi . . . 1817 (Caerfyrddin, 1818); Mer difynyddiaeth iachus mewn ffordd o ymddiddan by John Jones of Abernaint, 1810; Hanes erledigaeth y Cristnogion yn Madagascar by D. Johns, 1840; Caniadau ar amrywiol destynau by Llewelyn Siôn of Cefn-coed-y-Cymmer; Ffans'r ffin by J. Seymour Rees, 1922; The history of Ynysgau Church, Merthyr Tydfil by J. Seymour Rees; Evan James Williams, F.R.S., 1903-45, reprinted from Obituary notices of Fellows of the Royal Society, Vol. 5, March 1947; and Seren y mynydd: papur newydd at wasanaeth Llanuwchllyn, Cyf. 1, Rhifau 1 a 2, 1895.

Manuscripts and papers of Rev Peter Williams ('Pedr Hir', 1847-1922), supplementing the papers presented to the Library in 1953 by the late W. U. Williams, the donor's father. They include sermons and sermon notes; items of verse; a prose drama entitled 'Owen Glyndwr' (typescript); a verse drama entitled 'Iorwerth Ap Owen' by 'Cuhelyn'; 'Drama Fydryddol . . . yn disgrifio Bywyd a Marwolaeth William Herbert, Iarll Cyntaf Penfro' [submitted for competition at the Abergavenny National Eisteddfod, 1913]; a prose narrative entitled 'Sir Rhys Ap Thomas and his times'; 'The Dream of John the Malster [sic] or The Vision of the City of Corruption' (cf. Breuddwyd Sion y Bragwr); a play entitled 'Oed y Ferfa'; material prepared in connection with A Key and Guide to the Welsh Language [1911]; and a volume containing a number of press-cuttings and photographs.

Some of the sermons are written on voters' lists (printed) for the Abergele Polling District and on sheepscab and foot-and-mouth disease returns and forms for use by the Denbighshire Constabulary.

Written inside one cover is a draft of a letter from 'Pedr Hir' accepting a pastoral call to Tredegar.

The items of verse include 'Cain ac Abel' and other poems published in Odlau Pedr Hir (1879), 'Cyflafan Seisyllt ap Dyfnwal yng Nghastell y Fenni', and 'Awdl goffa Mrs. Jane Williams, annwyl briod yr awdur', with notes by T. Gwynn Jones.

There are also a few letters and postcards, some concerning A Key and Guide to the Welsh Language. The correspondents include [David Bowen], 'Myfyr Hefin', Thos. Griffiths, Abertillery, David James, 'Defynnog', Rhys Jenkins, Tredegar, Edmund O. Jones, Llanidloes, J. Morris Jones, [J.] Puleston [Jones], T. Gwynn Jones ('Cywydd Annerch i Bedr Hir'), Thos. Powel, Cardiff, D[avid] P[owell], [Liverpool], L. J. Roberts, Swansea, John Thomas, 'Eifionydd' (with material relating to John Emlyn Jones, 'Ioan Emlyn'), and Samuel Thomas, Tredegar.

Two half-tone blocks of 'Pedr Hir', and of 'Pedr Hir' and 'Dyfed' at the Birkenhead Eisteddfod, 1917; a half-tone process reproduction of 'Pedr Hir' and 'Dyfed' at the Birkenhead Eisteddfod, 1917; and a photograph by J. R. Reynolds of the donor's father, W. U. Williams.

HUW LEWYS 'PERL MEWN ADFYD'

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1963-64

Disgrifiad / Description

An imperfect copy in manuscript of Huw Lewys, Perl mewn Adfyd, (?) intended for publication as a second edition, c. 1658, and perhaps re-transcribed, c. 1728 (NLW MS 18619A). A new title-page was intended, and the original title-page (1595) has been transcribed opposite by Moses Williams. There is no record of a second edition having been printed. The orthography, etc., has been altered somewhat throughout. The dedication and 'englynion' to Dr. Richard Vaughan have been copied in their entirety but the preface 'Tr Darllennydd Christnogaidd' (changed here to 'Christianogol') has been altered completely towards the end and is subscribed 'Hugh Lewis' (unlike the 1595 edition). Both the dedication and the preface are here dated 'Dydd Calan, 1658'. The chapter headings have been gathered together at the beginning to form a list of contents, and at the end are a number of prayers- 'Gweddiau yw harfer yn amser Adfyd', 'Diolch am ymwared allan o Adfyd' - followed by 'Cywydd ir Iesu' by Huw

Lewys. The prayer in the 1595 edition has been omitted. With regard to the Scriptural quotations, in some cases at least it appears that the readings in the Welsh Bible of 1620 have been substituted for those of 1588.
