

75 YEARS AGO in The Spectator

(These items originally appeared in The Spectator issue of Friday, Dec. 3, 1943.)

Henry Carter Gosnell is home from the Omaha Army Training station on a ten days' leave.

The 4-H Club was organized at the Ozark high school, Nov. 29, when the following officers were elected: President, Billy Dow Huggins; vice-president, Jack King; secretary, Vocille Mayner; reporter, Mary Hillard; song leader, Reba King; local leaders, Mrs. Carl Rose, Miss Grace Taylor, Mrs. Homer Hillard and Judge N.L. Mayner.

Thirty boys and girls joined. We are interested in stressing the program of "Feed a fighter" and "Food for Victory." We are hoping that our club this year will be even more successful than our last year's club.

Mrs. Claude Wakefield returned from Camp Wolters, Texas, Tuesday after a ten day visit with her husband.

Funeral for A.J. Holladay, 88, veteran Hogan township Justice of the Peace, who died at his home at Altus early Wednesday after a long illness, was held from the Altus Methodist church Thursday, when Rev. W.W. Peterson, pastor, conducted the service. Burial was in Fain cemetery.

Mr. Holladay was born in Mississippi, Feb. 18, 1855, was married in 1874 and came to Altus in 1903. He served as justice of the peace almost his entire residence in Hogan township. He was credited without question as being one of the most trusted men of the county. He had been a member of the Church for over 50 years and his conduct was exemplary of a devout Christian.

Survivors include two sons, C.J., Port Arthur, Texas, and J.A., Ozark; three daughters, Mrs. Jennie Hern, Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. Martha Brown, Shreveport, La., and Mrs. D.E. Crutchfield, Altus. Eight grandchildren are in the Armed Forces.

C.H. McKay assumed the duties of Ozark night watchman, Wednesday, succeeding Tom Dickerson, who resigned.

Burns Wakefield is in St. Louis buying goods for Wakefield & Co. store.

WHIPPOORWILL

Cephas Allred, Major Burnett and Bethel Burnett were in Fort Smith on business, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Sosebee have returned to the Spring Hill community where they will make their home. They had spent several days with their son, Horace Sosebee, and family and their daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Allred, and family. Our teacher, Mrs. Georgia Curtis, says, "There are some very difficult problems which arise even with a small group of children - It's not such an easy task to teach."

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Dillahunt visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Wofford, who have a new son.

Mrs. John Emery visited in the home of Johnnie Little at Hunt Town, whose little son was kicked by a horse a few weeks ago, but who is reported to be recovering nically.

Mrs. Clelan Patrick of Fort Smith was here Thursday with Mrs. Josephine Davis, who came Tuesday from San Diego to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marcum, at Cass.

Hoyt Lee, County Chairman, reports the War Fund Drive brought the following results for the week:

Fly Gap, $63.05; P-Nut, $56.44; Watalula, $25; Ozark Theatre, $80.06; Manitou, $6.09.

All exceeded their quotas except Manitou, which a quota of $10.00 had been asked.

Fuqua-Weishaupt

Miss Dorothy Weishaupt and Sgt. Edgar Fuqua were married at the Methodist church Wednesday before the congregation attending the Prayer Meeting when Rev. J.M. Barnett said the ceremony. Mrs. Fuqua is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Weishaupt, Alix, and Sgt. Fuqua is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fuqua, Alix, but who are in California for the present.

The Ozark Rotary Club has announced plans to entertain the Rotary Anns, Tuesday, Dec. 14, at the Model Caf .

C.F. Burns, editor of the Southwest American, Fort Smith, and probably the best informed man in Arkansas, is expected to be speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Carter B. King left Monday for Richmond, Calif., where Mr. King has employment. She visited the Robert Schulmans in Oklahoma City, enroute.

The Parkes Plantation finished threshing their peanuts and baling their hay Dec. 1st.

They report the quality and yield are the best they have ever had, in spite of the late freeze, two floods and a record drouth - a quality and yield for which the management of the plantation expresses itself as being truly thankful.

Jeta Taylor, member of the County election commission, announced, Wednesday, that the commission had been instructed by the County Court to hold an election in Prairie Township on Monday, Dec. 6, under local option laws on the question of whether the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages is to be permitted in that township.

The following are the officials designated to hold the election. Judges: J.S. Smith, W.R. Bumpers, Thomas H. Humphreys; Alternate Judges: J.S. Haynes, H.E. Shumate; Clerks: Mrs. Mark Bramlett, Mrs. Bill Neissl; Alternate Clerk: Mrs. Floyd Sturdy; Bailiff: John Summers.

The election is of great interest in view of general belief that the surrounding area as well as the Town of Charleston is inclined toward solving the liquor question by prohibiting rather than by control of sale and education toward temperance.

The Arkansas Press Association appears to have information to the contrary of the accepted opinion and the advertisements sponsored by the Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc., which were not supposed to be run where they would give offense to any substantial number of people were released in Prairie Township and withheld from North Franklin County.

There will be a pie and box supper at the North Liberty school, Friday night, Dec. 3rd. Ladies, you have your choice, bring a pie or a box - Boys, stuff your jeans with change and come. Proceeds to be used in meeting our quota in the War Fund Drive now on in this county.

A musical program will be the feature of the evening.

Read the advertisement on last page. The Spectator makes no charge for assisting the communities in publicizing these drives for War Fund money.

Hills Chapel

Hog killing is the order of the day.

Miss Amanda Tolbert and E.W. Pippin are on the sick list.

Mrs. Leila Mae Gates took Sunday dinner with Irene Gattis

Rev. T.L. Dickerson will preach at this place Sunday, Dec. 5. Everybody is invited to hear him.

Cpl. and Mrs. J.C. Keith of New Jersey are spending his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Keith, and family.

The Ozark Grade School 4-H Club met Thursday, Nov. 18, at the school and elected the following officers: President, Jerry Arbaugh; vice president, Betty Ann Mainard; secretary, Mary Emily Wright; reporter, Christine Alston.

The president appointed the following committee to secure an adult leader:

Elouise Harris, Gwendlyn Sossamon, Kenneth Snow, Bobby Jack Williams and Wesley Warnock.

Carl Rose and Mrs. Margaret Brownfield distributed registration forms and assisted the members in selecting their projects for the year.

There will be a pie supper at Oak Hill church Friday night, Dec. 10, for benefit of the community's contribution to the National War Fund Drive.

This is among the outstanding communities in the county for getting the job done. In the first China Relief drive, the Editor was amazed at the response of that group. He would "almost" agree to hoe cotton next summer to make up for the fact that the Oak Hill crowd might hold back just to see the editor hoe cotton.

(Adv.) FOR RENT - Henry English farm of 172 1/2 acres, house and barn for $150 per year. We hold the rock house and little barn. Located three miles So. East of Ozark. Henry English, General Delivery, Blythe, Calif.

Our Men and Women in the Nation's Service

Pfc. George G. Kelly and Pfc. Norman Kelly, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, Cass, won their private first class ratings simultaneously, according to a release from the European Theater of operations dispatch received by The Spectator today.

Mary Warner, Army Nurses Corps, writes from England:

"Dear Elizabeth and all, Here I am in England and it's rather a lonesome one at that. I've visited London and other places over here and while they're very old, interesting, beautiful, etc., I would not trade Ozark for all of them. We have raids frequently, but I suppose I'm getting used to them now as I usually sleep through them.

"Give my regards to everyone and have a Merry Christmas. I only hope that I can come back home someday and to Ozark.

"Love, Mary"

We'll add soon to that someday.

Cpl. Champ C. Turner, Div. Hq. Co. Transportation Platoon, APO 81, Camp Claiborne, La., and Mrs. Turner are guests of his father, Eli Turner. Mrs. Turner has been at Oklahoma City.

Pvt. Arthur Dewitt, overseas in the European theater, writes he received his first copies of The Spectator and enjoyed them very much. Address is not published, but we will address any mail his friends might care to send.

Galen Gossett, Storekeeper 2-c, 102 NCB, Hq. Co., P.3, ABO, Port Hueneme, Calif., sends a Christmas greeting to friends:

"Tho half a world away, Our hearts leap forth to you and

Love and joy this Christmas Day, say

With peace and victory near,

We'll bend our backs and say a prayer

To speed us home by next New Year.

Would give a lot for a cup of Coley's coffee, a cigarette, and good friends to shoot the bull with, regards, Galen."

All we can add is "same here."

Five signature Japanese dishes to make at home or order when eating out. The Spectator is a weekly British magazine on politics, culture, and current affairs. It was first published in July 1828, thus making it the oldest weekly magazine in the world. It is owned by David and Frederick Barclay, who also own The Daily Telegraph newspaper, via Press Holdings. Its principal subject areas are politics and culture. Its editorial outlook is generally supportive of the Conservative Party, although regular contributors include some outside that fold, such as Frank Field, Rod Weekly magazine featuring the best British journalists, authors, critics and cartoonists, since 1828.
