First Counselling Session - Overview for Student Counsellors. The first counselling session is different from any subsequent sessions. In the first session, you will put a counselling contract in place, discuss boundaries and the limitations of confidentiality. It also gives you as the counsellor an opportunity to assess the client's needs as they explain their reasons for seeking counselling. As someone who counsels in the USA I find these topics and discussions to be amazing. It is a great refresher having just come out of graduate school on the fundamental skills that are needed. I was not a big fan of person centered counseling until I really explored myself more and find this to be helpful in my continued education as a counselor. read more.
