History

The Connecticut Gay and Lesbian Film Festival began as a project of the cultural organization Alternatives.

Alternatives: the Hartford Gay and Lesbian Cultural Organization, Inc. was founded in 1988 to promote and encourage lesbian and gay talent and to provide a forum for scholarship, art and literature that spoke positively to the lesbian/gay experience.

It is a nonprofit organization incorporated with the state. The co-chairs were Alicia Davis, Bill Mann and Terri Reid; Secretary, Derek-Stefan Johns; and Treasurer Scott Laugenour.

Alternatives met every third Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Lesbian and Gay Community Center, 495 Farmington Avenue, Hartford. The organization was composed of various subcommittees: Visual Arts (which produced the Film Festival); Literature; Scholarship and Heritage; Music; Performance; and Publicity/Calendar. In addition, monthly salons were held to encourage members in the development of the various arts. Annual Subscribers' fees were $15.00.

In its early days it produced the play "The Haunted Host"; sponsored an Alternative Art Exhibition; presented Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick, Professor of English at Amherst College, speaking on gay aspects of classic literature; and hosted several musical and video salons. Alternatives issued a short lived literary periodical entitled Invert.

The Hartford Lesbian and Gay film Festival evolved into the Connecticut Gay and Lesbian Film Festival. The film festival celebrated its 20th anniversary in June of 2007.

In 2007, the name of the organization was changed to Out Film CT.
